Welcome

Welcome to this brief overview of Regal-Beloit Corporation. We are pleased to have this opportunity to tell you a bit about how we work, how we think, and why we're different from other companies.

For starters, we understand that we exist to benefit our customers, employees, and shareholders — those people who have most visibly demonstrated their confidence in this enterprise. Through their support, we have pursued an aggressive program of growth, acquiring two dozen companies in the past 20 years. We recognize the only way we can benefit our employees and shareholders is by providing extraordinary value to our customers.

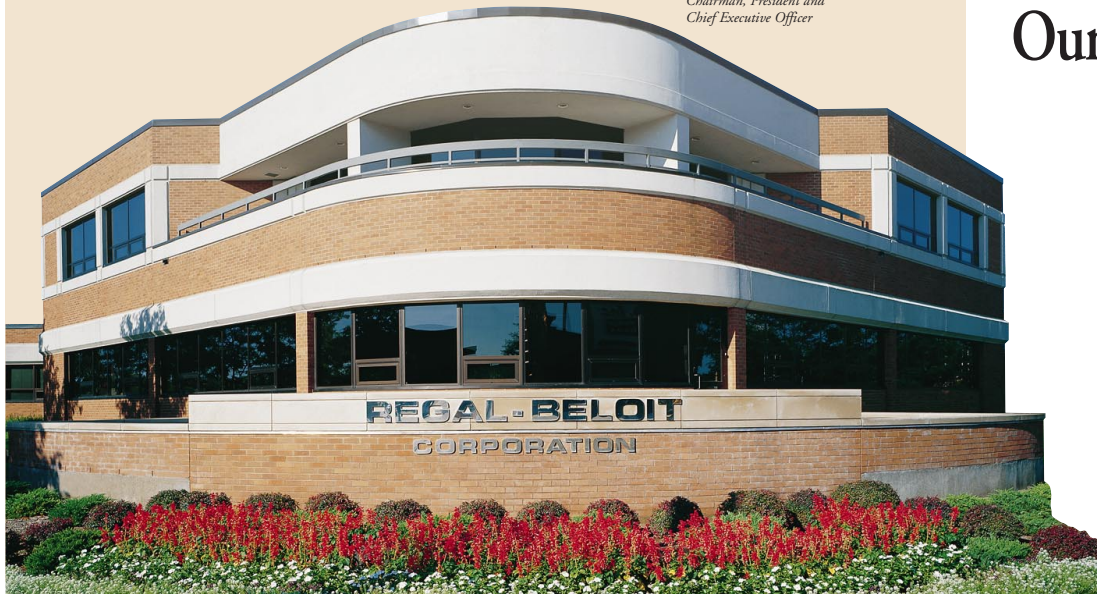

Producing consistent profits demands continuous excellence, whether it's serving customers or attracting outstanding people. Much of what follows speaks to our strongly held beliefs as to the importance of both.

For those of you now being introduced to Regal-Beloit, we hope you'll like what you see. If you're one of the many thousands of existing Regal-Beloit customers, suppliers, investors, or employees, let me extend my thanks for making the company what it is today. We're very proud of our strong record of profitability and growth over the past five decades and appreciate your contribution to our success.

Reaching Customers Around The World

World

"Thinking globally" is a logical extension of Regal-Beloit's commitment to constantly seek new and better ways to serve customers.

Through subsidiary operations in Italy, Germany, and England, we serve worldwide gear drive and valve actuator markets. By way of our assembly operation in Singapore, we are better able to serve AC generator customers in the Pacific Rim. And through warehouses in Europe and Asia, we're able to better supply customers with motors and gearmotors.

With a steady eye on the needs of our customers, we monitor the actions of competitors who build the bulk of their products outside the U.S. and Canada. We use the information as important benchmarks in evaluating the efficiency of our domestic production facilities.
